CRIMINAL NO. 18-CR-0252

PLEA AGREEMENT

The United States of America, by and through Ryan Patrick, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Texas, and Julie N. Searle, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, Keith Aaron Ford ("Defendant"), and Defendant's counsel, pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) and 11(c)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, state that they have entered into an agreement, the terms and conditions of which are as follows:

Defendant's Agreement

1. Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Counts 2 and 3 of the Indictment. Count 2 charges Defendant with Receipt of Child Pornography, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252A(a)(2)(B) and 2252A(b)(1). Count 3 charges Defendant with Possession of Child Pornography, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252A(a)(5)(B) and 2252A(b)(2). Defendant, by entering this plea, agrees that he is waiving any right to have the facts that the law makes essential to the punishment either charged in the indictment, or proved to a jury or proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

Punishment Range

2. The statutory maximum penalty for each violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252A(a)(2)(B) and 2252A(b)(1), is imprisonment for not less than 5 years and not more than 20 years and a fine of not more than $250,000.00. The statutory maximum penalty for a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252A(a)(5)(B) and 2252A(b)(2), is imprisonment for up to 10 years and a fine of not more than $250,000.00. Additionally, under both Counts 2 and 3, Defendant may receive a term of supervised release after imprisonment of at least 5 years to life. See Title 18, United States Code, sections 3559(a)(3) and 3583(b)(2). Defendant acknowledges and understands that if he should violate the conditions of any period of supervised release which may be imposed as part of his sentence, then Defendant may be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release, without credit for time already served on the term of supervised release prior to such violation. See Title 18, United States Code, sections 3559(a)(3) and 3583(e)(3). Defendant understands that he cannot have the imposition or execution of the sentence suspended, nor is he eligible for parole.

Mandatory Special Assessment

3. Pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, section 3013(a)(2)(A), immediately after sentencing, Defendant will pay to the Clerk of the United States District Court a special assessment in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per count of conviction. The payment will be by cashier's check or money order, payable to the Clerk of the United States District Court, c/o District Clerk's Office, P.O. Box 61010, Houston, Texas 77208, Attention: Finance.

4. Pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3014(a)(3), if the court determines that the Defendant is a non-indigent person, the Defendant will pay to the Clerk of the United States District Court a special assessment in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5000.00) per count of conviction. The payment will be by cashier's check or money order, payable to the Clerk of the United States District Court, c/o District clerk's Office, P.O. Box 61010, Houston, TX 77208, Attention: Finance.

Immigration Consequences

5. Defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to his immigration status if he is not a citizen of the United States. Defendant understands that if he is not a citizen of the United States, by pleading guilty he may be removed from the United States, denied citizenship, and denied admission to the United States in the future. Defendant's attorney has advised Defendant of the potential immigration consequences resulting from Defendant's plea of guilty.

Waiver of Appeal and Collateral Review

6. Defendant is aware that Title 28, United States Code, section 1291, and Title 18, United States Code, section 3742, afford a defendant the right to appeal the conviction and sentence imposed. Defendant is also aware that Title 28, United States Code, section 2255, affords the right to contest or "collaterally attack" a conviction or sentence after the judgment of conviction and sentence has become final. Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to appeal or "collaterally attack" the conviction and sentence, except that Defendant does not waive the right to raise a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel on direct appeal, if otherwise permitted, or on collateral review in a motion under Title 28, United States Code, section 2255. In the event Defendant files a notice of appeal following the imposition of the sentence or later collaterally attacks his conviction or sentence, the United States will assert its rights under this agreement and seek specific performance of these waivers.

7. In agreeing to these waivers, Defendant is aware that a sentence has not yet been determined by the Court. Defendant is also aware that any estimate of the possible sentencing range under the sentencing guidelines that he may have received from his counsel, the United States or the Probation Office, is a prediction and not a promise, did not induce his/her guilty plea, and is not binding on the United States, the Probation Office or the Court. The United States does not make any promise or representation concerning what sentence the defendant will receive. Defendant further understands and agrees that the United States Sentencing Guidelines are “effectively advisory” to the Court. See United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005). Accordingly, Defendant understands that, although the Court must consult the Sentencing Guidelines and must take them into account when sentencing Defendant, the Court is not bound to follow the Sentencing Guidelines nor sentence Defendant within the calculated guideline range.

8. Defendant understands and agrees that each and all waivers contained in the Agreement are made in exchange for the concessions made by the United States in this plea agreement.

The United States’ Agreements

9. The United States agrees to each of the following:

(a) If Defendant pleads guilty to Counts 2 and 3 of the indictment and persists in that plea through sentencing, and if the Court accepts this plea agreement, the United States will move to dismiss any remaining counts of the indictment at the time of sentencing;

(b) If the Court determines that Defendant qualifies for an adjustment under section 3E1.1(a) of the United States Sentencing Guidelines, and the offense level prior to operation of section 3E1.1(a) is 16 or greater, the United States will move under section 3E1.1(b) for an additional one-level reduction because Defendant timely notified authorities of his intent to plead guilty, thereby permitting the United States to avoid preparing for trial and permitting the United States and the Court to allocate their resources more efficiently.

United States' Non-Waiver of Appeal

10. The United States reserves the right to carry out its responsibilities under guidelines sentencing. Specifically, the United States reserves the right:

- (a) to bring its version of the facts of this case, including its evidence file and any investigative files, to the attention of the Probation Office in connection with that office's preparation of a presentence report;
- (b) to set forth or dispute sentencing factors or facts material to sentencing;
- (c) to seek resolution of such factors or facts in conference with Defendant's counsel and the Probation Office;
- (d) to file a pleading relating to these issues, in accordance with section 6A1.2 of the United States Sentencing Guidelines and Title 18, United States Code, section 3553(a); and
- (e) to appeal the sentence imposed or the manner in which it was determined.

Sentence Determination

11. Defendant is aware that the sentence will be imposed after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines and Policy Statements, which are only advisory, as well as the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, section 3553(a). Defendant nonetheless acknowledges and agrees that the Court has authority to impose any sentence up to and including the statutory maximum set for the offense(s) to which Defendant pleads guilty, and that the sentence to be imposed is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge after the Court has consulted the applicable Sentencing Guidelines. Defendant understands and agrees that the parties' positions regarding the application of the Sentencing Guidelines do not bind the Court and that the sentence imposed is within the discretion of the sentencing judge. If the Court should impose any sentence up to the maximum established by statute, or should the Court order any or all of the sentences imposed to run consecutively, Defendant cannot, for that reason alone, withdraw a guilty plea, and will remain bound to fulfill all of the obligations under this plea agreement.

Rights at Trial

12. Defendant understands that by entering into this agreement, he surrenders certain rights as provided in this plea agreement. Defendant understands that the rights of a defendant include the following:

(a) If Defendant persisted in a plea of not guilty to the charges, defendant would have the right to a speedy jury trial with the assistance of counsel. The trial may be conducted by a judge sitting without a jury if Defendant, the United States, and the court all agree.

(b) At a trial, the United States would be required to present witnesses and other evidence against Defendant. Defendant would have the opportunity to confront those witnesses and his attorney would be allowed to cross-examine them. In turn, Defendant could, but would not be required to, present witnesses and other evidence on his own behalf. If the witnesses for Defendant would not appear voluntarily, he could require their attendance through the subpoena power of the court; and

(c) At a trial, Defendant could rely on a privilege against self-incrimination and decline to testify, and no inference of guilt could be drawn from such refusal to testify. However, if Defendant desired to do so, he could testify on his own behalf.

Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

13. Defendant is pleading guilty because he is in fact guilty of the charges contained in Counts 2 and 3 of the indictment. If this case were to proceed to trial, the United States could prove each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt. The following facts, among others would be offered to establish Defendant's guilt:

a. On or about March 3, 2017, an undercover employee with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), using a computer connected to the Internet and utilizing a law enforcement tool that allows single-source downloads from the BitTorrent P2P network, conducted an investigation into the sharing of child pornography through that network. The FBI identified a computer on the BitTorrent P2P file sharing network with the IP address of 47.32.243.36 as a potential download candidate (source) for more than 37,500 files with hash values consistent with child pornography. The FBI directed the investigation to this computer at IP address 47.32.243.36 as it had been detected as being associated with investigative files of interest by investigators conducting keyword searches or hash value searches for files related to child exploitation material including child pornography on the BitTorrent network.

b. Between March 3, 2017 through May 30, 2017 the FBI was able to download over 20 image files and 7 video files from IP address 47.32.243.36, which was actively sharing several torrents containing files with names indicative of child pornography. Some of these files included child pornography files of underage females between the ages of 14 and 16.

1. Filename: wcpa5517.jpg

Description: This is a still image file that depicts an underage female, who appears to be under the age of 14, nude, and being orally penetrated by the erect penis of an adult male.

2. Filename: Dilc015.jpg

Description: This is a still image file that depicts an underage female, estimated to be under the age of 16, nude, with vagina exposed to the camera.

3. Filename: Dilc012.jpg

Description: This is a still image file that depicts an underage female, who appears to be under the age of 16, being orally penetrated by the erect penis of an adult male.

4. Filename: IMG_3334.jpg

Description: This is a still image file that depicts an underage female, who appears to be under the age of 14, engaged in a pose where her genitals are exposed in a lewd and lascivious manner.

c. A query of the IP address was conducted through a publically available database and it was determined that IP address 47.32.243.36 resolved back to Charter Communications. The IP address was geolocated to the Defendant's address, which is located within the Southern District of Texas.

d. On or about August 3, 2017, the FBI conducted physical surveillance of Defendant's home. FBI observed multiple vehicles at the residence, all of which were registered to Defendant.

e. On August 11, 2017, FBI Houston executed a federal search warrant at the Defendant's residence. Upon the execution of said search warrant, agents seized various electronic media.

f. After the execution of the search warrant, Defendant was interviewed. After being advised of his Miranda Rights, Defendant agreed to make a statement. The statement was audio and video recorded.

g. The Defendant admitted that he had a general understanding of peer-to-peer programs with regard to having to conduct keyword searches for a topic of interest and then having to actively select and approve the desired files for download and receipt. Defendant acknowledged that uTorrent is a file sharing software designed to exchange digital files between peers. Defendant did state, however, that he thought he had disabled the file sharing component of the program. Defendant acknowledged that he had been downloading and viewing child pornography for one year, would occasionally masturbate to it prior to his wife coming home from work. Defendant denied ever having contact with a child.

h. A forensic exam was performed on the items seized from the search:

- Seagate Free Agent hard drive with serial number 2GET4XAC;
- Seagate hard drive with serial number NA7Z5G2R; and,
- Lenovo 80UD laptop computer with serial number MP17BKMG containing a Toshiba hard drive.

Agents discovered 745 image files and 723 video files on the hard drive found in the Lenovo laptop computer. Each of these images showed young children engaged in sexually explicit conduct as defined under federal law (18 U.S.C. 2256(2)(A)). The image files depicting child pornography portray female minors, ranging from infants to young teenagers, engaged in sex acts including oral, vaginal, and/or anal penetration; S&M/bondage; bestiality; masturbation and/or self-penetration with foreign objects; and/or lascivious displays of the genitals. There was an exceptionally large number of files depicting minor females under the age of 5. Some of the images are of known victims as identified through the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. The following files are noted as these images and videos qualify for sentencing enhancement purposes:

1. Filename: ptsc_Jenny9yo daughter tied up and dock licking her.avi

Description: [Bestiality/Bondage] This is a video file that is approximately 2 minutes and 6 seconds, depicting a minor female, under the age of 12, bound by rope while being vaginally licked by a canine and being orally penetrated by the erect penis of an adult male.

2. Filename: AVSEQ03.DAT.riff

Description: [Bondage] This is a video file that is approximately 10 minutes and 1 second in length depicting a minor female, estimated to be under the age of 10, bound with duct tape by the wrists and ankles while being vaginally penetrated by the erect penis of an adult male and then vaginally and anally penetrated by foreign objects.

3. Filename: (Pthc) !!! New 0604 !!! Luvnlilly 3yo(1). avi

Description: [Victim Under 5] This is a video file that is approximately 7 minutes and 3 seconds in length that depicts an underage female, who appears to be under the age of 5, being vaginally and orally penetrated by the erect penis of an adult male.

4. Filename: __KP HARDCORE

Description: [Minor] This is a videofile file that is approximately 48 seconds in length that depicts an underage female, who appears to be less than 5 years of age, being anally penetrated by the erect penis of an adult male.

There were also a total of 319 videos that were greater than five minutes in length.

i. The computer media at issue was used to distribute, receive and possess the child pornography traveled in foreign or interstate commerce. Further, the Defendant used the Internet, which is a means and facility of interstate commerce to distribute, receive and possess the child pornography found on the above referenced media devices.

Breach of Plea Agreement

14. If Defendant should fail in any way to fulfill completely all of the obligations under this plea agreement, the United States will be released from its obligations under the plea agreement, and Defendant's plea and sentence will stand. If at any time Defendant retains, conceals, or disposes of assets in violation of this plea agreement, or if Defendant knowingly withholds evidence or is otherwise not completely truthful with the United States, then the United States may move the Court to set aside the guilty plea and reinstate prosecution. Any information and documents that have been disclosed by Defendant, whether prior to or subsequent to this plea agreement, and all leads derived therefrom, will be used against defendant in any prosecution.

Restitution, Forfeiture, and Fines – Generally

15. This Plea Agreement is being entered into by the United States on the basis of Defendant's express representation that he will make a full and complete disclosure of all assets over which he exercises direct or indirect control, or in which he has any financial interest. Defendant agrees not to dispose of any assets or take any action that would effect a transfer of property in which he has an interest, unless Defendant obtains the prior written permission of the United States.

16. Defendant agrees to make complete financial disclosure by truthfully executing a sworn financial statement (Form OBD-500 or similar form) within 14 days of signing this plea agreement. Defendant agrees to authorize the release of all financial information requested by the United States, including, but not limited to, executing authorization forms permitting the United States to obtain tax information, bank account records, credit histories, and social security information. Defendant agrees to discuss and answer any questions by the United States relating to Defendant's complete financial disclosure.

17. Defendant agrees to take all steps necessary to pass clear title to forfeitable assets to the United States and to assist fully in the collection of restitution and fines, including, but not limited to, surrendering title, executing a warranty deed, signing a consent decree, stipulating to facts regarding the transfer of title and the basis for the forfeiture, and signing any other documents necessary to effectuate such transfer. Defendant also agrees to direct any banks which have custody of his assets to deliver all funds and records of such assets to the United States.

18. Defendant understands that forfeiture, restitution, and fines are separate components of sentencing and are separate obligations.

Restitution

19. Defendant agrees to pay full restitution to the victim(s) regardless of the count(s) of conviction. Defendant stipulates and agrees that as a result of his criminal conduct, the victim(s) incurred a monetary loss in an amount to be determined either before sentencing or within 90 days of the sentencing hearing. Defendant understands and agrees that the Court will determine the amount of restitution to fully compensate the victim(s). Defendant agrees that restitution imposed by the Court will be due and payable immediately and that Defendant will not attempt to avoid or delay payment. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 above, Defendant waives the right to challenge in any manner, including by direct appeal or in a collateral proceeding, the restitution order imposed by the Court.

Forfeiture

20. Defendant stipulates and agrees that the property listed in the Indictment's Notice of Forfeiture (and in any supplemental Notices) is subject to forfeiture, and Defendant agrees to the forfeiture of that property. In particular, but without limitation, Defendant stipulates that the following specific property is subject to forfeiture: Seagate Free Agent hard drive with serial number 2GET4XAC, Seagate hard drive with serial number NA7Z5G2R, and, Lenovo 80UD laptop computer with serial number MP17BKMG containing a Toshiba hard drive.

21. Defendant agrees to waive any and all interest in any asset which is the subject of a related administrative or judicial forfeiture proceeding, whether criminal or civil, federal or state.

22. Defendant consents to the order of forfeiture becoming final as to Defendant immediately following this guilty plea, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(4)(A).

23. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 above, Defendant waives the right to challenge the forfeiture of property in any manner, including by direct appeal or in a collateral proceeding.

Fines

24. Defendant understands that under the Sentencing Guidelines the Court is permitted to order Defendant to pay a fine that is sufficient to reimburse the government for the costs of any imprisonment or term of supervised release, if any. Defendant agrees that any fine imposed by the Court will be due and payable immediately, and Defendant will not attempt to avoid or delay payment. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 above, Defendant waives the right to challenge the fine in any manner, including by direct appeal or in a collateral proceeding.

Notification of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act

25. Defendant has been advised, and understands, that under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, a federal law, he must register and keep the registration current in each of the following jurisdictions: where he resides; where he is an employee; and where he is a student. The Defendant understands that the requirements for registration include providing his name, his residence address and the names and addresses of any places where he is or will be an employee or a student, among other information. The Defendant further understands that the requirement to keep the registration current includes informing at least one jurisdiction in which he resides, is an employee, or is a student not later than three (3) business days after any change of residence, employment, or student status. Defendant has been advised, and understands, that failure to comply with these obligations subjects him to prosecution for failure to register under federal law, 18 U.S.C. §2250, which is punishable by a fine or imprisonment, or both.

Complete Agreement

26. This written plea agreement, consisting of 14 pages, including the attached addendum of Defendant and his attorney, constitutes the complete plea agreement between the United States, Defendant, and Defendant's counsel. No promises or representations have been made by the United States except as set forth in writing in this plea agreement. Defendant acknowledges that no threats have been made against him and that he is pleading guilty freely and voluntarily because he is guilty.

27. Any modification of this plea agreement must be in writing and signed by all parties.
